

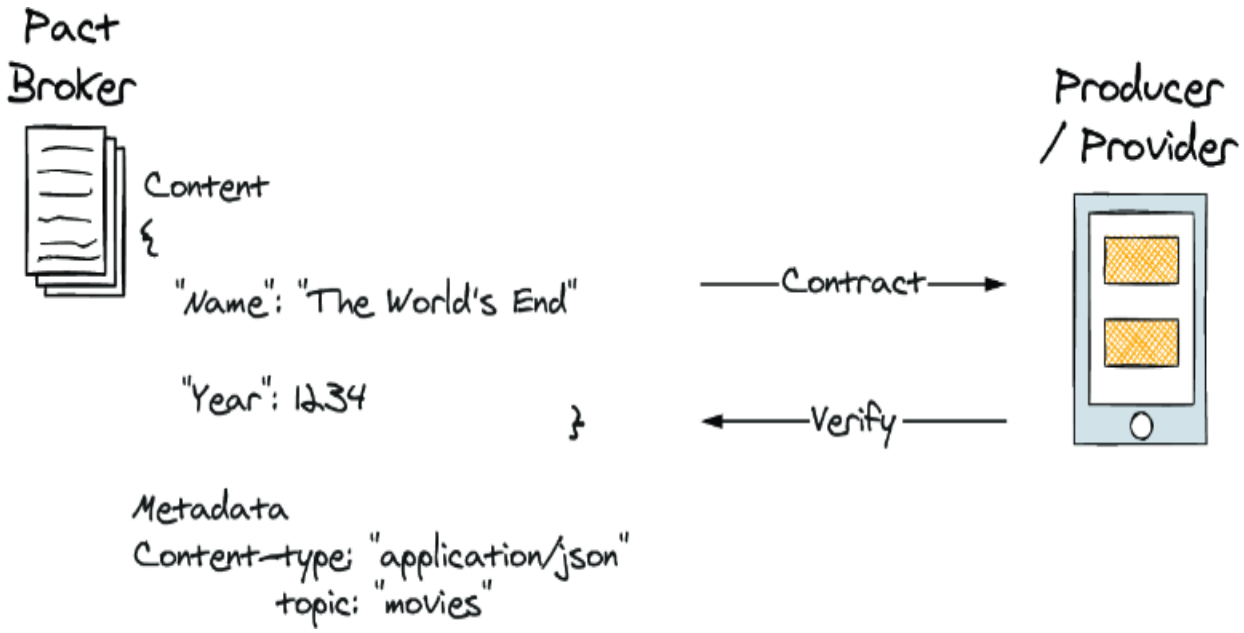

Figure 8.15 Producer/Provider pulling down the Pact contract from the Pact Broker to verify the content and metadata of the message

On running the test from the console, if the test is successful, the output should display the word PASS along with the word OK next to the specific content and metadata verified, as shown in figure 8.16.