

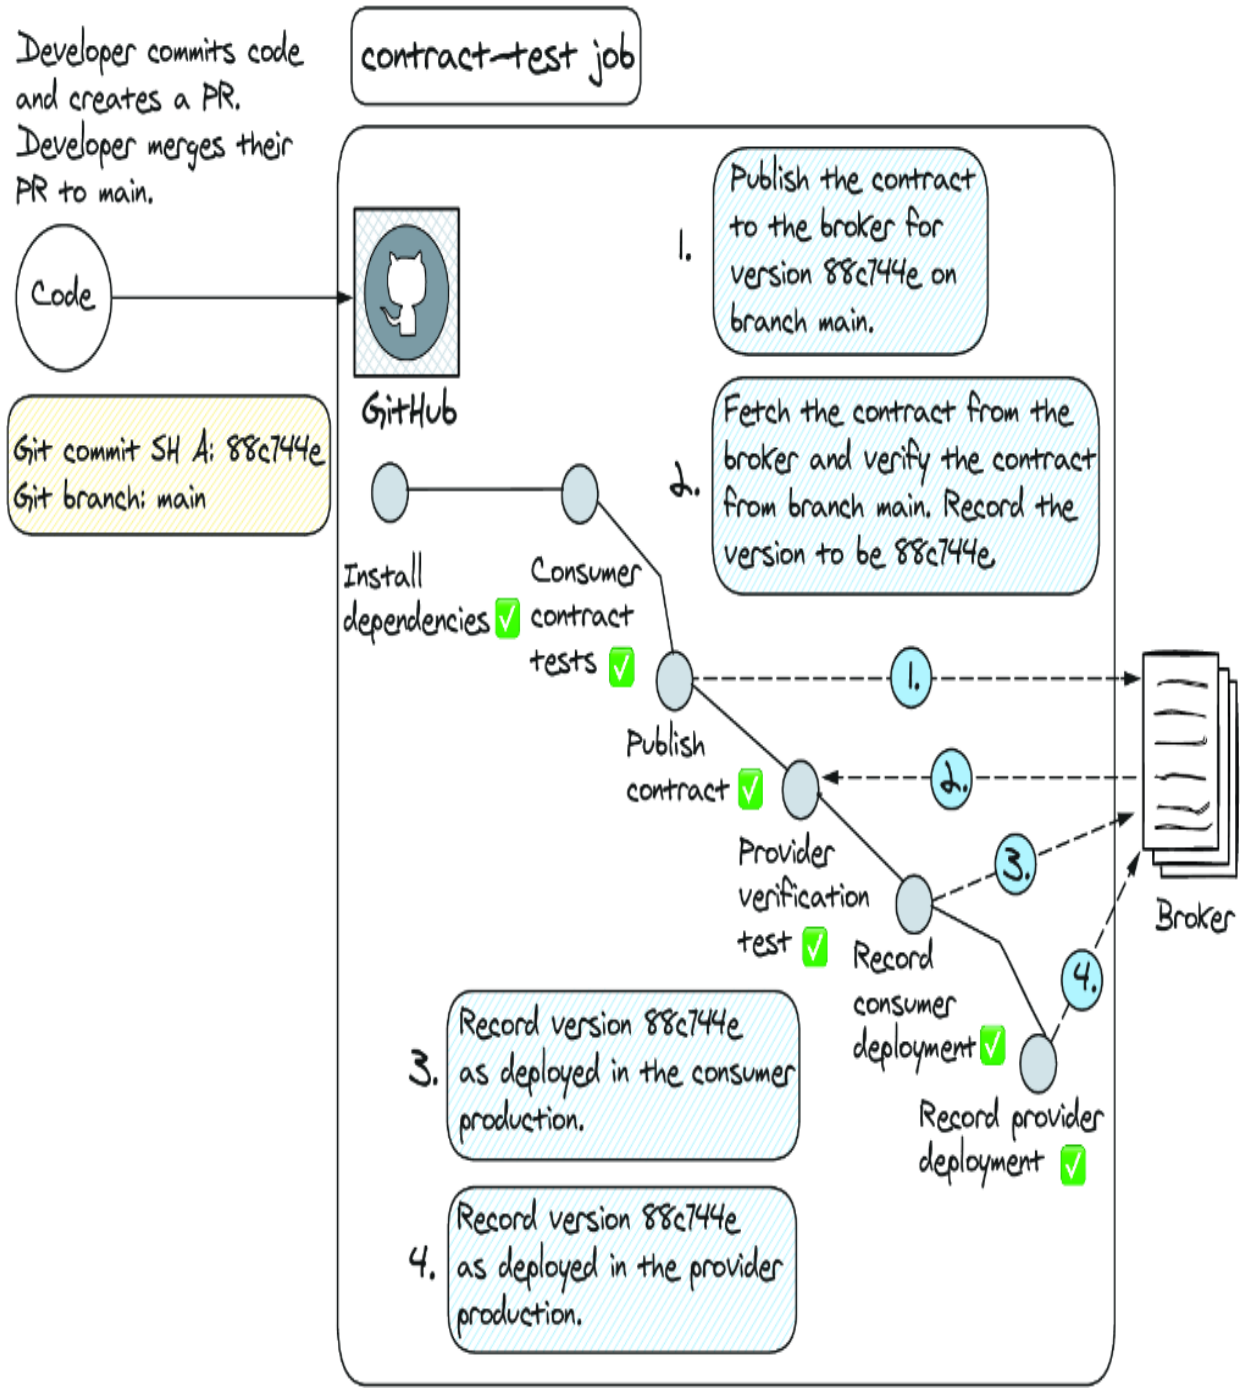

Figure 10.12 CI/CD setup for our contract testing job with deployments or releases configured to signify which versions are deployed to an environment, such as production

Now that we've recorded a specific version to be deployed in an environment, another recommended setup is to update the provider configuration to verify contracts currently deployed in an environment to ensure that changes in the provider are verified against the deployed