

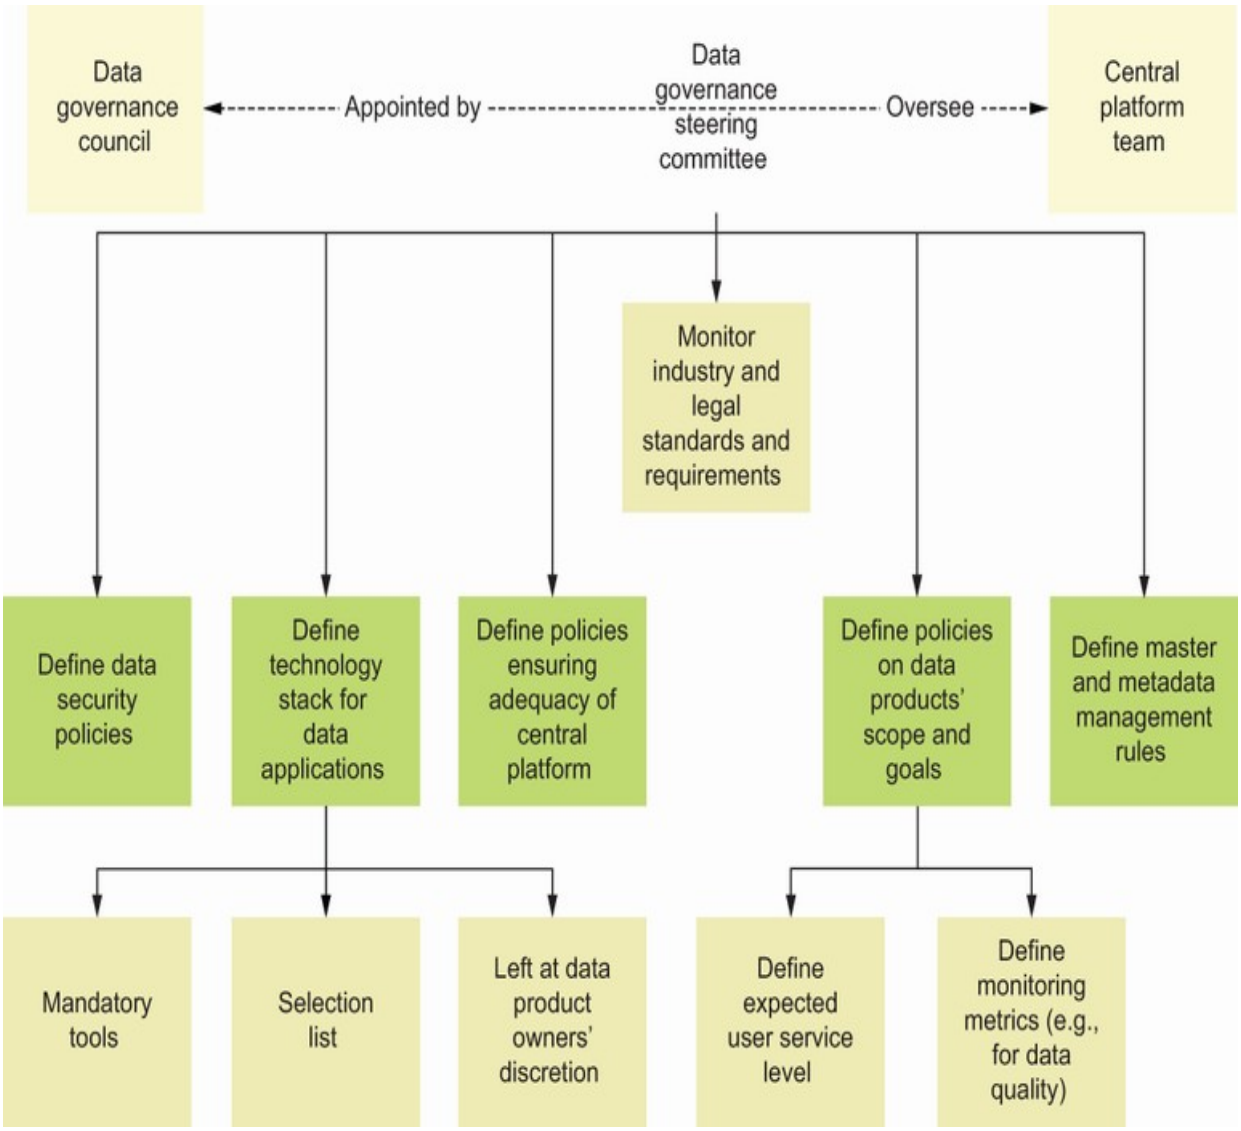

Figure 6.6 Responsibilities of the Messflix data governance steering committee

This body works on the details of master and metadata management, security, and solutions, allowing communication between data products and automation of technology-based policies. They are also responsible for oversight of the work of the central platform team.