

Figure 1.4 In Candace's snow-shoveling business, Adam and Eve do their work, while Bob creates a stack of inventory, freezing the capital.

The previous year, Candace asked Adam and Eve to write down their working times and the number of houses cleared. She put that data in a fancy Microsoft Excel file in order to do some calculations and set prices. Figure 1.5 displays that data flow.